

Credit card

The credit card information is automatically processed in the bank's gateway.

This information can be saved for future purchases.

Drivania works with Stripe, a PCI Compliance provider, which is the entity that stores credit card information.

All communications between Drivania and Stripe are encrypted, as per PCI security protocols.

Drivania and its employees will never have direct access to the information stored in the Stripe systems.

