If you do not want to confirm the quote yet, or if you need authorization, it can be saved by clicking on “Save quote” to avoid having to enter all the information again.

If you do not save the quote, we cannot guarantee the same terms the next time you submit the request. Remember that prices are subject to availability and may vary due to events at the destination as well as because of the date and time of the ride.

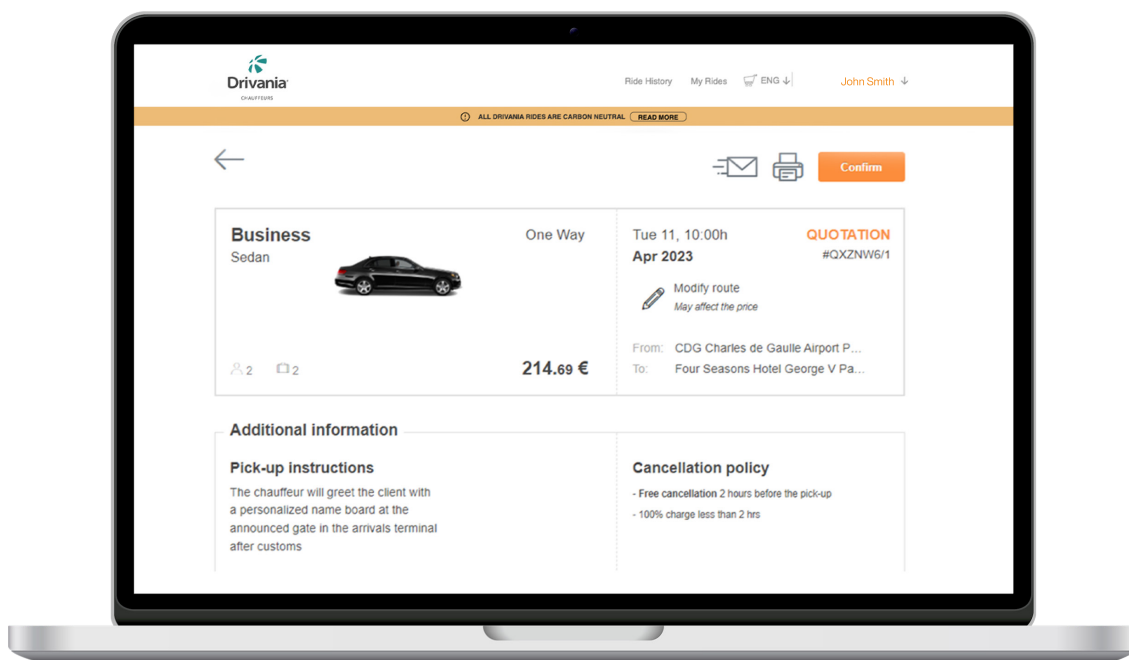

The terms quoted will remain valid during the next seven days. If the ride is for before the aforementioned seven-day period, the quote will remain valid until four hours before the pick-up time, except in the case of limited availability (see 16. Limited vehicle availability).

You can confirm the saved quote in the My Rides section (in the “Quoted” tab).

Don't worry if you do not confirm the quote. It will automatically expire after seven days or, when applicable, four hours before the pick-up time.
